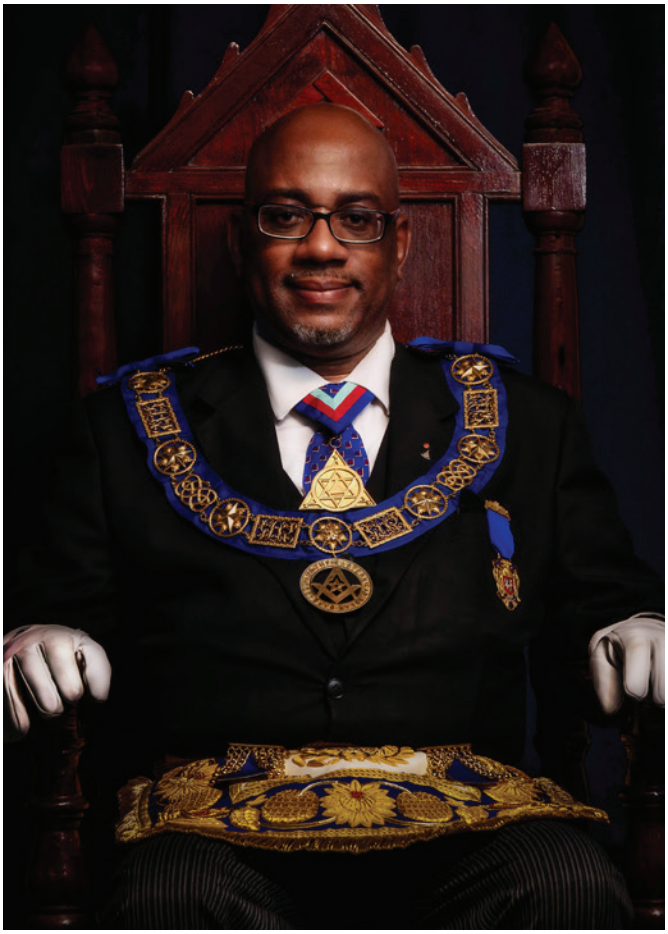
Welcome to 341st Communication, 39th Convocation

District Grand Lodge of Barbados & the Eastern Caribbean - District Grand Master RW Bro Clement E. M. Bird



Some seven (7) years ago, the District descended on the Nature Isle for the very first time in its nearly 300-year existence. It was indeed a glorious occasion; Dominica had recently determined to relinquish its status as an unattached lodge with direct ties to our Grand Lodge and instead seek the fraternal bonds of fellowship with the lodges and chapters of our District.

This relationship has 'worked a charm'. The brethren on St. George were accepted with open arms and have fitted seamlessly into our midst; and indeed, such was the effect of that first foray that certain aspects of our Communication weekends we now take for granted, originated in this lovely land.

In the interim the most devastating occurrence of the Covid-19 Pandemic has had an understandably adverse effect on our ability to travel, what with ever limited options to access our member territories, and exorbitant costs and Dominica is not an exception.

We thank the brethren and their 'significant others' who have sojourned on this occasion, as it only strengthens our fraternal bonds and friendships forged over the years.

We recognize the efforts put forth by our hosts, who always go 'above and beyond' to ensure the happiness experienced by our members – Thank You Worshipful Master/MEZ of St. George 3421, for the great time to be had by one, and all.

Sincerely & Fraternally

RW Bro Clement E. M. Bird

Worshipful Master's Welcome Message

Worshipful Master St. George Lodge No. 3421 E.C. Wor. Bro. Garford Oscar Joseph

Brethren and Ladies,

Welcome to the Nature Isle of the Caribbean, where emerald mountains rise like ancient guardians, where rivers carve their timeless stories through the land, and where the sea meets our shores with the same gentle constancy that has shaped our people for generations. Dominica is a place where heritage breathes, where culture sings, and where every visitor becomes part of the island's living poetry.

On behalf of the brethren of St. George Lodge No. 3421, I extend warm, fraternal, and heartfelt greetings as we gather for this 341st District Communication. Your presence transforms this occasion into more than a meeting of the Craft; it becomes a celebration of fellowship, tradition, and the enduring bonds that unite us across districts, lodges, and generations.

We express sincere appreciation to the District Grand Master and his officers for granting us, for the second time, the honor of hosting this distinguished event in the Masonic calendar. In preparing for your arrival, our committee drew inspiration from the rhythms of our heritage—the resilience of our Kalinago ancestors, the vibrancy of our Creole traditions, and the unbroken spirit that has carried Dominica through storms, triumphs, and rebirth.

Alongside the core business of the Craft, we have curated experiences that reflect the soul of our island: the majesty of Morne Diablotin wrapped in morning mist, the thunderous applause of Trafalgar Falls, the warmth of Dominican hospitality, and the unmistakable cadence of our people whose smiles carry the stories of centuries. We trust that these moments will refresh your spirit and remain etched in your memories long after you depart our shores.

To the ladies, we extend special appreciation. The activities prepared for you are designed to rekindle friendship, laughter, and shared joy—those quiet treasures that strengthen the fabric of our fraternity. And as tradition gently reminds us, what unfolds at the lake shall remain a cherished secret among those who share its magic. Your unwavering support continues to enrich our journey, and we honor you for the grace, strength, and companionship you bring to our Craft.

As you explore Dominica—whether tasting the richness of cocoa tea, hearing the lively strains of jing ping, or simply standing in awe before nature's artistry—we trust that you will feel the spirit of this land settling warmly upon you. May it uplift your heart, deepen your reflections, and remind you of the beauty of fellowship.

Brethren and Ladies, welcome once more. May your time on the Nature Isle be filled with harmony, inspiration, and the cultural poetry of a land blessed by nature, strengthened by heritage, and enriched by the timeless bonds of Freemasonry.

Thank you.

Welcome to Dominica

Discover Dominica Authority, CEO/Director of Tourism, Marva H. Williams

On behalf of the Board, Management and Staff of the Discover Dominica Authority, it is my pleasure to welcome delegates, accompanying guests and visitors to the Commonwealth of Dominica for the 341st District Communication of the District Grand Lodge of Barbados and the Eastern Caribbean.

This gathering provides an important opportunity for fellowship, professional engagement and the strengthening of relationships among members from across the region. We are delighted that Dominica has been chosen as the destination for this year's event and are pleased to share the island's unique experiences with you.

Whether you are visiting Dominica for the first time or returning to our shores, we invite you to immerse yourself in all that the Nature Island has to offer. Rich in natural beauty, culture and warm hospitality, Dominica presents countless opportunities for exploration and discovery beyond the conference programme.

Visitors may wish to relax in the therapeutic hot springs of the Roseau Valley, savour authentic Creole cuisine, explore the historic capital city of Roseau, or connect with local communities and businesses throughout the island. Those extending their stay can experience some of Dominica's world-renowned attractions, including whale watching in the world's first sperm whale reserve, breathtaking waterfalls, lush rainforest trails and vibrant marine environments.

Your visit comes during a season when national pride and cultural celebration remain highly visible across the island, offering a wonderful opportunity to experience the spirit and heritage of the Dominican people.

We hope your time in Dominica is both productive and memorable, and that the experiences, connections and hospitality encountered during your stay will inspire future visits with family, friends and colleagues.

We extend our best wishes for a successful and enjoyable Communication and look forward to welcoming you back to Dominica again.

Welcome Address

W. Bro. Vincent C. Simon

Brethren, Ladies, distinguished guests and friends,

It is with tremendous pride and a profound sense of Brotherly love that I welcome you to the beautiful Nature Island of the Caribbean, the Commonwealth of Dominica, for the 341st District Communication and 39th Convocation of the District of Barbados and the Eastern Caribbean.

For me, this welcome carries a special sense of déjà vu. In 2019, when our District last assembled on our shores, I had the distinct honour, as Worshipful Master of St. George Lodge No. 3421, of welcoming you to Dominica. Seven years later, the privilege is mine once again, this time in my capacity as Chairman and Secretary of the Local Organizing Committee.

Much has changed since then, but one thing certainly has not: our desire to make you feel at home in Dominica.
Over the past several months, the members of the Local Organizing Committee have worked diligently behind the scenes to prepare for your arrival. There have been meetings, telephone calls, emails, negotiations, planning sessions, changes to plans, and occasionally changes to the changes! Through it all, however, we have remained focused on one objective: to ensure that your time with us is enjoyable, memorable and worthy of this great District.
Every detail has been approached with you, our Brethren, Ladies and guests, in mind. Our reward will not simply be the successful completion of the weekend's programme, but seeing friendships renewed, new bonds of Brotherhood formed, laughter shared and memories created.

In 2019, we endeavoured to provide you with an experience that reflected the warmth and hospitality for which Dominica and St. George Lodge are known. In 2026, we hope your experience will once again exceed your expectations, and perhaps exceed them by even more than in 2019.

Throughout your stay, please remember that the Local Organizing Committee remains at your service. Should you require information, guidance, assistance or simply someone to point you in the right direction, please do not hesitate to approach any member of the Committee. We are here, we are available, and we will always be willing to assist in whatever way we reasonably can.

To my Brethren, I encourage you to embrace these few days not merely as another Communication on our Masonic calendar, but as an opportunity to reconnect with old friends, establish new friendships, exchange ideas and strengthen the bonds that unite our District. Though we come from different islands and jurisdictions, when we assemble together, we are reminded that the principles and tenets of Freemasonry transcend geography.

And, of course, I cannot forget our Ladies of the Lake.

While the Brethren attend to the important business of the Craft, we certainly do not expect our ladies to remain indoors waiting for us! We hope you take full advantage of the opportunity to be "Outside Too," exploring our island and becoming truly "Rooted in Nature." Whether enjoying our rivers, sampling our cuisine, experiencing our culture, exploring our natural beauty, or simply enjoying the warmth of Dominican hospitality, we hope your time here will be every bit as memorable as ours, and perhaps considerably more relaxing!

To all our visiting Brethren, Ladies and guests, I encourage you to experience as much of Dominica as your schedule permits. Meet our people. Taste our food. Explore our communities. Enjoy our rivers, mountains and natural attractions. And when the weekend is over, we hope that you leave with much more than photographs; we hope you leave with memories, friendships and a genuine desire to return.

On behalf of the entire Local Organizing Committee and the Brethren of St. George Lodge No. 3421, thank you for accepting our invitation and for making the journey to be with us.

Seven years ago, I had the honour of saying welcome to Dominica.
Today, I have the privilege of saying it once again:
Welcome back, Brethren and Ladies of the Lake. Welcome, friends. Welcome home to the Nature Island.

May your stay be safe, enjoyable and memorable, may the 341st District Communication and 39th Convocation strengthen the bonds that unite us, and may your experience in Dominica once again far exceed your expectations.
Enjoy the Communication. Enjoy the fellowship. And most importantly, enjoy Dominica!

Fraternally,

W. Bro. Vincent C. Simon

WELCOME MESSAGE FROM THE MOST EXCELLENT ZERUBBABEL

Most Excellent Sherlock Jackson

Dear Companions, Distinguished Guests, Families and Friends,

It is with great pride, gratitude and heartfelt pleasure that I welcome you to the beautiful island of Dominica for our 49th Convocation.

To our visiting Companions, whether returning to familiar shores or experiencing Dominica for the first time, we are delighted to have you among us. May you enjoy the warmth and hospitality that make our island truly the Nature Island of the Caribbean.

One of the greatest blessings of Royal Arch Masonry is the enduring bond of Companionship. Though time and distance may separate us, our gatherings renew friendships, strengthen our unity and remind us that the spirit of brotherhood extends far beyond the walls of our Chapters.

As we assemble to conduct the important affairs of our Order, may our deliberations be fruitful, our exchanges enlightening and our fellowship filled with warmth, laughter and lasting memories.

To the spouses, families and friends accompanying our Companions, I extend a special welcome. We encourage you to embrace the natural beauty, rich culture and genuine hospitality of Dominica. May your stay be both memorable and rewarding.

As Most Excellent Zerubbabel, it is my sincere hope that this Convocation will strengthen our bonds, deepen our commitment to our noble Order and leave each of us with cherished memories.

May the Great Architect of the Universe guide our proceedings, bless our fellowship and grant us safe journeys home.

Companions, welcome to Dominica! May this 49th Convocation be a truly memorable celebration of unity, friendship and Companionship.

Fraternally yours,

Companion Sherlock Robinson

A Message from the Ladies' Liaison Officer

Britnee Doctrove

It is my absolute pleasure to welcome you to the beautiful Nature Isle of the Caribbean, Dominica. On behalf of our local ladies, thank you for making the journey to be with us. We hope your time here is filled with warmth, laughter, fellowship, and wonderful memories.

I would like to extend a very special welcome to the ladies who have travelled from near and far, in support of their husbands and partners on their journey in Masonry. Your presence is a beautiful reminder that behind every great man is often a remarkable woman standing proudly by his side. Ladies, I applaud you.

Through this journey, I have had the privilege of meeting and learning from so many incredible women. Your continued presence, encouragement, sacrifice, and support do not go unnoticed. Our gathering here in Dominica is yet another testament to the love and commitment we share for the men we support, and to the special sisterhood that has grown among us along the way.

And to our gentlemen, we are proud to stand beside you as you continue to grow in your journey of brotherhood and Masonry. We celebrate your achievements, admire your commitment, and will continue to encourage and support you every step of the way, even if that support occasionally comes with a little unsolicited advice! After all, that is part of the love and partnership that has brought so many of us here today.

As we spend this time together, I hope we continue to strengthen our sisterhood, embrace new friendships, reconnect with familiar faces, and create bonds that extend far beyond this weekend and last a lifetime.
Ladies, you are appreciated, you are cherished, and your support matters.

Welcome to Dominica. May you arrive as our guests and leave as part of our family.

JESSE F. BARDOUILLE
18th February 1985 – 21st December 2025

Jesse Felix Bardouille, affectionately known to all of us as Mugsy, was born on February 18, 1985, in Goodwill, then, a few short years later, his family moved to Checkhall, Massacre. He was the first child of his devoted mother, Dorcas Bardouille, and the second child of his father, Benoit Bardouille. Jesse grew up surrounded by love alongside his siblings: his sister Keturah, and his brothers Curvin and Kieron.

Above all else, Jesse was a proud and loving father to his two daughters, Daazi and Kylee. Family meant everything to Jesse.

Jesse's journey began at Christian Union Preschool in Goodwill, followed by Massacre Primary School, where his intelligence earned him a scholarship at the Common Entrance Examinations. He went on to attend the Dominica Grammar School, an institution known for excellence, and later graduated from the Dominica State College (after doing one year at Clifton Dupigny Community College). Jesse was intelligent, capable, and sharp, but he never felt the need to boast. He simply got things done.

Most of Jesse's professional life was spent at Auto Trade Ltd., where he steadily worked his way upward through discipline, commitment, and sheer hard work. He started in the Accounts Department, then became Group Parts Manager for Dominica and St. Maarten, and, at the time of his passing, Dealership Development. Those who truly understood his value, especially Mr. Karl Nassief, know that Jesse will not be easily replaced. He loved his job deeply, even during stressful moments. Jesse knew how to laugh, but when it came to work, he was focused and serious. Work was work, and he treated it with respect. Sometimes, on especially hard days, the cigarette butts left behind quietly told the story of the pressure he carried and carried it well.

Jesse was a sportsman at heart. Sports were not just a pastime for him; they were part of his identity.

Cricket held a special place in Jesse's heart, especially West Indies cricket. He lived and breathed every match, every victory, every heartbreak. While he may not always have been reliable for runs, wickets, or catches, one thing was guaranteed: Jesse always showed up. He gave his best, every single time.

He loved football just as much. Watching Jesse run on a football field was always an experience. He was famously slow but what he lacked in speed, he made up for with determination and bone-rattling tackles. Nobody got past Jesse easily. He was a loyal Arsenal supporter, a passionate basketball fan, and proudly backed the Miami Heat.

Jesse also spent countless hours in the gym. Bodybuilding was another outlet for his intensity and discipline. Perhaps that's why he never hesitated to stand his ground when necessary. Jesse was a genuine fighter in life, in sport, and in loyalty, which confuses me how he lost that fight for life. He was blunt, no-nonsense, and known for his stern language. But beneath the tough exterior was a kind-hearted, generous soul, someone you always wanted in your corner.

And yes, as much as Jesse loved sports, it must also be said—he loved a good drink, and he was a very good batsman at the crease.

Beyond sports, Jesse was deeply committed to service. He served as Treasurer of the Dominica Cricket Association, among other roles, where his discipline, integrity, and foresight were widely respected. Those who worked with Jesse at the DCA knew his priorities clearly: financial integrity and preparedness. One phrase of his will forever echo in my mind:

Jesse had a presence that lit up every room he entered. He was the life of the party, always ready to laugh, share, and bring people together. His warmth, generosity, and infectious spirit touched countless lives. He gave freely his time, advice, resources, and heart.

Jesse was initiated on 7 December 2020 in St. George Lodge 3421
He was passed on 7 June 2021
Raised on 7 March 2022
Exalter on 19 August 2022 in St. George Chapter 3421
Advanced on 21 August 2023 in DLMMM 1873
Elevated on 20 November 2023 in DLRAM 1873

Jesse was very dedicated to Masonry and had big plans for this year's Ladies Night to be held under your stewardship. Sadly it never came to pass.
